

2009-2010 Assessment Committee
September 29, 2009
11:30 A.M.
BH 100

Members Present: Karen Smith, Adrien Presley, Joseph Sencibaugh, Andrei Klyukovski, Scott Alberts, Doug Davenport, Maria Di Stefano, Daette Lambert, Troy Paino, Charles Tomlinson

Members Absent: Paul Yoder, Nancy Asher, Marty Eisenberg

- Doug Davenport gave a brief history of the Assessment Committee. It was suspended for the 2008-2009 academic year to be assessed by the Assessment Task Force.
- The charge of the 2009-2010 Assessment Committee is to make and implement changes. The Assessment Task Force has come up with some guiding principles for this year's Committee.
- Members of the Assessment Task Force attended a conference on assessment in Indiana. While Truman is still a leader in assessment in many ways, it has also fallen behind in some areas.
- Wabash College is preparing to conduct a second round of a study on assessment, and Truman has been invited to participate. Doug Davenport will look into the application deadline and details of this study.
- Karen Smith was appointed as the 2009-2010 Assessment Committee Chair.
- Once the Director of the Student Interview Project has been selected, he or she will be an ex-officio member of the Committee.
- Daette Lambert will work with Chair Karen Smith to set up future meetings.

dl