

Chapter XVI: SENIOR TEST RESULTS

Senior Examination in the Major

Who takes it?

All seniors take a senior examination in the major.

When is it administered?

During the senior year.

How long does it take for a student to complete the senior test?

This depends on the test, but the average is about 2 1/2 hours.

What office administers it?

Assessment and Testing Office.

Who originates the test?

The faculty select the test that best suits their majors.

When are the results typically available?

Usually several months after the test is given. University averages are typically available in the summer for the fiscal year.

What type of information is sought?

Generally information relating to general knowledge in the major. In some cases, the tests provide subscores for particular areas of the major. The GRE General Tests are generally used in majors where there is currently no senior examination appropriate to the major. It generally provides information on analytical, quantitative, and verbal skills.

From whom are the results available?

Assessment and Testing Office and later from Division Offices.

Distribution is regularly made available to whom?

Individual results are communicated to students and their advisors. University, division, and discipline averages are sent to the President, VPAA, Division Heads, Assessment Committee, and selected administrators.

Are the results available by division or discipline?

Yes.

Are the results comparable to data of other universities?

Usually though not always (this may depend on the test involved).
